New Delhi-2, the 15th May 1957

S.R.O. 1659.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 50 of the Special Marriage Act, 1954 (43 of 1954), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Special Marriage (Jammu and Kashmir) Rules, 1957.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) "the Act" means the Special Marriage Act, 1954 (43 of 1954);
- (b) "form" means a form appended to these rules;
- (c) "Marriage Officer" means an Officer of the Central Government who for the time being has been specified to be a Marriage Officer under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 3;
- (d) "section" means a section of the Act.

3. Particulars regarding name, etc. of Marriage Officer to be displayed in his office building.—Every Marriage Officer shall arrange to have his name, designation and the working hours of his office to be written in English, Hindi and Urdu and displayed in a conspicuous part of the building in which his office is situated.

4. Notice of intended marriage.—When a marriage is intended to be solemnised under this Act by a Marriage Officer, the parties to the intended marriage shall give notice thereof in writing in the form specified in the Second Schedule to the Act to such officer either in person or by registered post.

5. Payment of fee.—(1) Where the notice is delivered in person, the fee prescribed therefore in rule 13 shall be paid in cash to the Marriage Officer.

(2) Where the notice is sent by registered post, the fee shall be remitted by money order at the remitter's expense and the receipt issued to the remitter by the post office through which the remittance is made shall be attached to the notice.

6. Procedure on receipt of notice.—(1) As soon as the notice is received by the Marriage Officer, a distinctive serial number shall be entered on it and such number and the date of receipt of the notice shall be attested by the signature of the Marriage Officer.

(2) If the notice is in conformity with the requirements of the Act, it shall be entered in the Marriage Notice Book which shall be a bound volume, the pages of which are machine-numbered consecutively with a nominal index attached.

(3) If the notice is not in conformity with the requirements of the Act, it shall be got rectified by the parties if they are present, or if they are not present returned to them by post for rectification and retransmission within a date to be fixed for this purpose.

(4) The Marriage Officer shall have every item of rectification attested by both the parties.

7. Publication of notice.—The Marriage Officer shall cause the notice to be published by affixing a true copy thereof under his seal and signature to some conspicuous place in his office.

8. Objection to be transmitted by Marriage Officer in certain cases.—If a copy of any notice of an intended marriage is received in pursuance of sub-section (3) of section 6, by a Marriage Officer whether appointed under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 3 or otherwise, and if such officer receives any objection to the intended marriage, and the fee prescribed therefor in rule 13, he shall forthwith transmit such objection to the Marriage Officer from whom the copy was received and also inform the person who has made the objection to prefer it to the latter officer. The latter officer shall record in writing the objection in the Marriage Notice Book.

9. Procedure for inquiry into objection.—(1) If any objection to the solemnisation of the intended marriage together with the fee prescribed therefor in rule 13 is received and recorded by the Marriage Officer, he shall fix the date and time for inquiry into the objection and cause notice thereof to be given in Form I to the person who has made the objection and also the parties to the intended marriage.

(2) On the date so fixed or on any other date to which the inquiry may be adjourned, the Marriage Officer shall make an inquiry into the objection and record in his own hand in the manner prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), the evidence given.

(3) After the completion of the inquiry, the Marriage Officer shall prepare a statement containing his views on the objection and the reasons in support of his views and transmit such statement together with the record to the Central Government in the Ministry of Home Affairs.

(4) The Central Government shall after making such further inquiry into the matter and after obtaining such advice as it thinks fit, give its decision thereon in writing to the Marriage Officer concerned who shall act in conformity with such decision.

10. Place of solemnisation.—The marriage shall be solemnised at the office of the Marriage Officer:

Provided that before doing so, the Marriage Officer shall satisfy himself that the provisions of any local law for the time being in force relating to marriages have been complied with.

11. Transmission of copies of entries in marriage records.—(1) The Marriage Officer, shall send to the Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, New Delhi, three true copies certified in Form II of all entries made by him in the Marriage Certificate Book at intervals of three months on, or as nearly as possible after, the 1st day of January, April, July and October in each year and one such copy shall be transmitted by the said Secretary to the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages of the State or of each of the States in which the parties are domiciled or were permanently residing.

(2) When no entries have been made in the Marriage Certificate Book during the three months preceding the day aforesaid, a Certificate to this effect in Form III shall be sent to the said Secretary.

12. Form of Marriage Certificate Book.—The Marriage Certificate Book shall be a bound volume, the pages of which are machine-numbered consecutively with a nominal index attached. Every marriage certificate entered therein during each calendar year shall be consecutively numbered and every authenticated copy of a certificate issued to the parties shall bear this number and the date, month and year in which the certificate was entered.

13. Scale of fees.—(1) The following fees shall be levied by Marriage Officers:—

- (i) For every notice of intended marriage, Rs. 10/- (to be paid by the parties to the marriage).
- (ii) For recording an objection, Rs. 10/- (to be paid by the person making the objection).
- (iii) For every inquiry into an objection, Rs. 50/- (to be paid by the person making the objection).
- (iv) For every notice to the parties to an intended marriage, of the date and time fixed for inquiry into an objection, Rs. 2/- (to be paid by the person making the objection).
- (v) For solemnising a marriage Rs. 50/- (to be paid by the parties to the marriage).
- (vi) For a certified copy of an entry (to be paid by the applicant)—
 - (a) in the Marriage Notice Book, Rs. 5/- or
 - (b) in the Marriage Certificate Book, Rs. 5/- .
- (vii) For making a search (to be paid by the applicant)—
 - (a) if the entry is of the current year, Rs. 5/-
 - (b) if the entry relates to any previous year or years, Rs. 10/-.

(2) A receipt duly signed by the Marriage Officer shall be issued for all fees received by him under the Act and these rules. The receipt books shall be bound volumes of one hundred leaves each with foils and counter-foils which shall be machine-numbered consecutively. All moneys received by the Marriage Officer shall be credited to such head of account as the Central Government may specify in this behalf.

CENTRAL EXCISE COLLECTORATE, DELHIPUBLIC NOTICE*CENTRAL EXCISE

SUBJECT:—Refunds—Vegetable Non-Essential Oils—Export of—Rebate of excise duty on Oil exported ex-India.

New Delhi, the 17th May, 1957

S.R.O. 1673.—The rate of excise duty on Vegetable Non-Essential Oils has been enhanced from Rs. 70.0 to Rs. 112.0 with effect from 16th May, 1957. The Central Government vide Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) Notification No. 35/57 dated the 16th May 1957, has, however, exempted cotton seed oil from so much of the duty leviable thereon, as is in excess of Rupees fifty six per ton.

With the enhancement in the rate of excise duty on such oils, the amount of rebate of excise duty payable to the exporters, shall with effect from the 16th May 1957, be five-seventh of the duty actually paid. Thus if rebate of duty is to be granted against an A.R.I. application dated prior to the coming into force of the Finance Bill, 1957 the amount of rebate will be the amount calculated at the rate prevailing at that time and not at the revised rate.

In the said rules, in sub-rule (7) of rule 6, after the words “Mineral Concession Rules” the words “as in force on the date of the commencement of these rules” shall be inserted.

[No. 29(5)/57-MIV.]

New Delhi, the 20th May 1957

S.R.O. 1694.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1948 (53 of 1948), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments in the Mineral Concession Rules, 1949, namely:—

In the said rules—

1. for sub-rule (2) of rule 17, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) In case of refusal the reasons therefor shall be recorded in writing and the fee paid under rule 15 shall be refunded.”;

2. for the proviso to sub-rule (1) of rule 24, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that the State Government may, for special reasons to be recorded in writing refuse to grant a mining lease to any such licensee.”

3. for sub-rule (2) of rule 28, the following sub-rule shall be substituted namely:—

“(2) when an application for a mining lease is refused the reasons therefor shall be recorded in writing.”

4. for rule 57, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“Application for review: (1) Where a State Government passes an order—

(i) refusing to grant a certificate of approval, prospecting license or mining lease;

(ii) refusing to renew a certificate of approval, prospecting license or mining lease;

(iii) cancelling a prospecting license or mining lease;

(iv) refusing to permit transfer of a prospecting license or any right, title or interest therein under clause (iv) of sub-rule (1) of rule 23 or a mining lease or any right, title or interest therein under rule 37;

it shall communicate in writing the reasons for such order to the person against whom the order is passed and any person aggrieved by such order may, within two months of the date of receipt of such order, apply to the Central Government for reviewing the same.

(2) Where a State Government has failed to dispose of an application for the grant or renewal of a certificate of approval or prospecting license or a mining lease within the period prescribed therefor in these rules, such failure shall, for the purpose of these rules, be deemed to be a refusal to grant or renew such certificate, license or lease, as the case may be, and any person aggrieved by such failure may, within two months of the expiry of the period aforesaid, apply to the Central Government for reviewing the case.

(3) An application for review under this rule may be admitted after the period of limitation prescribed under this rule, if the applicant satisfies the Central Government that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within the said period.”;

5. for rule 58, the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“58. Application fee.—An application for review under rule 57 shall be accompanied by a treasury receipt showing that a fee of Rs. 100 has been paid into a Government treasury or in any branch of the State Bank of India doing the treasury business to the credit of the Central Government under the Head XXXVI—Miscellaneous Departments—Miscellaneous—Central—Mineral Concession fees. In the case of an application under sub-rule (1) of rule 57, such application shall be further accompanied by a copy of the order sought to be reviewed.
